

CITY BRIEFS.

The Lord's Club will have a run to Harborside Tuesday night.

The rain of yesterday put a stop to all street racing work.

The ladies' class for Bible study will meet at Shanti church chapel Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Brays Bayou Harmony club will give a prize concert and ball at Newman's park on Sunday, April 23.

Two persons were arrested yesterday for stealing about 100 pounds of cotton band buckles from one of the contractors.

The canal having been removed from the court house, leaving an opening in the top, the building was flooded by yesterday's rain.

Mrs. Stoddard's lecture, which was to have been given last night, has been postponed on account of the weather till tomorrow night.

Savage and Pollard have been selected to represent the Houston Lawn Tennis club in the State tournament at San Antonio next week.

There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Western Union Telegraph company for Elmo Pote, Wm. L. Ingersoll and Edward Reicht.

There will be a regular meeting of the Houston Manufacturers' association at the parlors of the Hutchins house, room 115, Monday, at 8 o'clock.

Circle No. 1 of the Young Men's Christian Association auxiliary will give a reception next Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Miss Brinkman will be in charge of the organ at the Tabernacle Methodist church today and Miss Annie C. Reed will sing at that church tonight.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Max Freund will be glad to learn of the birth to them of a fourteen-pound bouncing baby boy, both mother and babe are doing well.

The "Elberton," a Pullman special, containing a party of Chicago capitalists en route to Mexico, arrived at the west-bound Southern Pacific last night.

Mr. Wm. O'Hern, superintendent of machinery and equipment for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway, arrived in the city last night.

Insurance adjusters were engaged yesterday in looking over and assessing the stock of goods of Western Union Telegraph company, which were burned some weeks ago, in the Rice building, on Travis street.

It may be of interest to local politicians to know that Mr. T. H. Hill, who has renounced his allegiance to the populist and declares his intention of again coming back to the democratic fold, arrived in the city last night.

Night sergeant Nie of the police force has been given an indefinite leave of absence, owing to ill health and has gone to San Antonio. W. C. Adams will serve as night sergeant during his absence.

Rev. J. W. Barron of Huntsville, who has been attending the conference at Columbus, has kindly consented to remain over Sunday. He will preach at the Second Presbyterian church this morning at 11 o'clock and again tonight at 7:45.

Rev. L. D. Lankin has just returned from his trip to the Southern Baptist conference at St. Louis and will preach tonight on the significance of the voice of the movement as a characteristic feature of the progress of religion in modern times.

The contracting parties to a marriage last night at Mrs. J. C. Kellum's house were Miss Annie Kellum and Mr. Charles Harrison. Miss Kellum is a young lady who is well liked by her many friends and Mr. Harrison is a fireman on the Southern Pacific road.

A wire of the fire alarm system came in contact with a trolley wire yesterday afternoon on the corner of Fannin street and Congress avenue and caused the tower bell to ring several times. The alarm wire was severed in two, but City Electrician George Cox repaired the damage.

Dick Bowling camp will hold a meeting this evening at 7 o'clock. The camp will be in charge of delegates who are positively certain of attending the Charleston reunion. There will also be a decision as to whether a speaker for Charleston. A full attendance is requested, as other important business will come up.

Captain Schwartz and thirty members of the bowling club will leave this morning at 9 o'clock for the Santa Fe for Galveston, where they will play a match. The number of men to take part will not be decided until they reach Galveston, but Captain Schwartz expects to accompany the team.

John Perry, a colored man, who is porter for H. D. Taylor & Co. Great West, has placed near the Emancipation grounds a quarter of an acre in timothy cotton. After paying expenses for breaking the ground, seed, cultivation, etc., he expects to net from the sale of the cotton and the seed $105, equivalent to $620 per acre.

The music loving people of Houston who have at different times enjoyed the very excellent vocal music made by the Houston Glee club will regret to learn that that popular musical organization has disbanded, thus leaving Houston without any American male singing club. The club will have a final meeting to collect up its dues and distribute its assets among the members who remain in good standing.
